WHEATON INDUSTRIES RECEIVES MILLVILLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP AWARD

Millville, NJ – On May 6th Wheaton Industries received the Greater Millville Chamber of Commerce Economic Partnership Award for outstanding contributions that make the Holly City a Special Community. Marianne Lods, a Chamber Board Member, presented the award to Danine Freeman, Vice President of Finance and IT of Wheaton Industries. She was accompanied by Greg Bianco, Vice President of Operations and Nicholas DeBello, Director of Quality Management for Wheaton Industries.

The Greater Millville Chamber of Commerce presents this award each year to individuals, firms, and organizations that strengthen our economy by providing jobs, increasing the tax base, supporting community activities and generally promoting a positive image for the local business environment. The 32nd Annual Partnership Pride in Millville Award Banquet was held at the Heritage House located in Millville.

Wheaton Industries, Inc. is a leading marketer, manufacturer and repackager of containers, laboratory ware, instrumentation and associated products and services sold principally to customers in the general laboratory, life sciences, and diagnostic and reagent/chemicals packaging markets.
